MANY SARATOGA SCRATCHES

WHOLESALE WITHDRAWALS REDUCE ONE RACE TO A WALKOVER FOR NAPIER.

Thornhill Has a Solitary Opponent, but the Other Races Are Contested by Good Fields—The Curragh to Be Shown Today.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 13.—Today's racing was of the ordinary variety. Two of the races were robbed of all contention by scratches and one of them, the third, resulted in a walkover for Napier. There were originally eleven entries for the third, which was a selling race, with the top price $2,500. The presence of J. W. Hedrick, Jr.'s Napier in the race, it was rumored, was the chief reason for the withdrawal of the other entries, as the Hedrick establishment has been unusually active in selling races. When the entries were made yesterday it seemed as if the track, without any more rain, would be much improved today, but nothing in the night destroyed that chance. Wholesale scratching followed and a promising-looking card was thereby marred greatly.

The fourth race, which was a handicap, degenerated into a two-horse affair between Thornhill and Charter Maid. The former, a prohibitive favorite, only had to canter to win.

The second, fifth and sixth races were good speculative mediums and the winners were well backed. Pullux, ruling equal choice with Mars Cassidy, took the second in an impressive manner. After Mars Cassidy had led to the stretch turn, J. McTaggart called upon Pullux and he easily came away to win by a big margin. The fifth went to World's Wonder over the well backed favorite, Squealer. The latter led while going down the backstretch but succumbed to the winner while rounding the far turn. Volant, the strongly supported second choice, stumbled as the gate went up, upsetting jockey Buxton.

Belgian Trooper was heavily backed for the sixth, but failed to finish placed, although he ran a good race from his outside position. The going next to the inner rail continues to be far the best and the majority of the afternoon's winners were those that held the path by virtue of their early speed.

The stewards ruled that the money originating for the scratches in the third race would revert back to the owners who had made the scratches. J. W. Hedrick, Jr., had attempted to secure this money, but the ruling was based on the fact that there was no second and third horses, therefore it could not go to the winner. It was the first time that a technicality of the kind had arisen under the new scratch rule compelling the owner to pay to get out of a race with a certain number.

The books for the Kentucky Association's meeting, to be held in Lexington in September, was distributed among the horsemen today.

Pookmaker William O. Orr of New York was an arrival today and C. W. Morse, the former ice magistrate, was also an interested spectator.

Ex-Mayor and former State Controller Walsh of Yonkers was an arrival today. He is a great advocate of racing and during his visit last year he was the guest of the stewards in the stand for the afternoon.

Secretary of the Kentucky State Racing Commission Samuel C. Nuckles is a visitor here.

Gardlan Paint, a four-year-old gelding by Upgard out of a St. Simons mare, and a four-year-old filly by Bachelor's Button arrived yesterday on the Minnehaha. They are the property of the stable raced under the nom de course of Mr. Archdale.

The Curragh, John Sanford's recent English importation, will be exhibited in the paddock here tomorrow between races. He will later be sent to the Sanford farm.

At the request of the Saratoga Association, C. K. G. Billings will exhibit his champion trotter Uhlan next Saturday over the grass course.

The weather was extremely warm and humid today and patrons of the track are devoutly hoping that fair weather will prevail for a few days. Today was ladies' day, as is customary each Friday. This, of course, accounted for an increased attendance.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

Temp of salaries of 16,000 city employees reduced yesterday because of the refusal of Charles F. Sergel, city treasurer, to honor the pay vouchers of seven examiners of efficiency in the civil service division. E. H. Davenport, one of the men affected by the city treasurer's ruling, presented his voucher for two weeks' salary at the cashier's office this morning. Payment was refused. Immediately after Percy B. Coffin, president of the commission, was notified of Mr. Sergel's action, he announced that the commission would not certify to the pay roll of any city department. He refused to certify the following pay rolls which were on his desk: Civil service employees of the public library; a portion of the police department; the vacation pay roll in the comptroller's office; a part of the pay roll in the board of education. Without the certification of the commission to obtain his salary, Mr. Coffin said that he took this action on the ground that the city treasurer has no right to go behind the civil service commission's certification of a pay roll.

The situation on the long Russian battle front is disarrayed from London to advance with comparative rapidity due east from Warsaw, while being checked on the right and left flanks, has given rise to the impression in England and in Russia that the stout resistance offered by the Russian wings will insure the safe withdrawal of the main body of troops as it may seem, sprinters and stayers are as a general thing asked to race for purses of equal value. The associations here in Kentucky, by order of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, are required to give purses of a certain value. Why not require these associations to distribute a certain amount daily, thereby enabling the powers that be to add a larger amount for the longer distance races than is hung up for the sprinters?

ADVOCACY OF REFORM IN PROVISION OF MORE MONEY AND RACES FOR STAYERS

Last spring I presumed to approach one of the "liveliest" members of our commission and suggested to him that the racing associations which come under the jurisdiction of the commission be required to include in their daily racing program at least one race at one and one quarter miles up to June 1, after this date the one mile and one-quarter races to continue, supplemented by three races each week of one and one half miles or over. I am not aware that anything has yet come of my temerity. The suggestion, I trust, may some day be put into practice. The Kentucky State Racing Commission is in absolute control of all matters pertaining to racing in this state and they, of course, can compel the racing associations operating under their jurisdiction to conform to their wishes. Trainers nowadays are rather prone to fight shy of distance racing, and by distance racing I mean races of from one and one-half miles to two and one-half miles, which in all conscience is as far as any horse at racing pace should be asked to travel. However, a substantial increase in the value of the purses for the stayer will quickly bring about a change and there will be no lack of entries for the long races.

For some reason, one that is impossible to fathom, those responsible for the promotion of the daily racing bill of fare, ignore the stayer and cater almost solely to the sprinter. In fact, they appear to have fallen into a rut from which it appears they are unable to extricate themselves.

As things now stand, the sprinter has every advantage over the long-distance runner, in fact, outside of the few stake races, the earning capacity of the speedy non-staying horse is greater than that of the stayer. Surely this merits correction. Sprinters are capable of putting in their two races a week the racing season through. On the other hand, two or three severe races, close together, over a considerable distance of ground, is more than apt to knock a hole in the best of them. Strange from the Warsaw salient. Contrary to many reports the main line of communication between the Polish capital and Petrograd has not been cut through. It would be cut if the Germans were to take Dyvinsk. On the southern front in Poland there has been bitter fighting. Berlin reports the Russians falling back, while Petrograd asserts that yesterday German attacks between the Wlapez and the Bug were repulsed with extremely heavy losses. Offsetting the German successes in central Poland, the Russians claim to be steadily driving back the Germans on the Kovno-Riga front, the most important sector of the whole long battle line. In the Riga region Petrograd reports that the Russians have retaken several villages and are advancing westward. Thus it would seem that the German plan to outflank Kovno and Vilna, the chief northern points of the Russian secondary line of defense, is meeting with failure. Continued German attacks on the fortress of Kovno and the front west of the Niemen river also have been repulsed. Of the fighting on this whole front, Berlin merely says that the situation is unchanged.

A Berlin dispatch of yesterday says: The Polish city of Siedloz, fifty-five miles southeast of Warsaw, has been captured by the Germans. An announcement to this effect was made today at army headquarters. German military authorities, on the suggestion of the citizens' committee of Warsaw, have declared a general amnesty of political prisoners there and set them free. Among these was the widely-known Russian labor leader, Meden. War correspondents report that Warsaw was not damaged by the struggle around it, and that only the corn storehouses in Praga were burned. Lublin likewise was only slightly damaged. Some factories in the barrack district were burned. The first real Russian, not Polish, town of some importance, entered by the Germans was Vladimir-Bolynski. Retiring Cossacks set fire to the buildings. As the Cossacks galloped away, German cavalry arrived at the other end of the town. The incoming troops tried to stop the fire, but with small success, and the central part of the city was entirely destroyed, the burned buildings including stores, restaurants and hotels. The suburbs and surrounding rural districts, the officers' residences, barracks, messes, schools and churches were spared. The German cavalry commander restored order and established a military and also a civil government, the latter by appointing three administrative presidents, one of whom was a Pole, another a Russian and the third a Jew.

General Baron Reinhard G. von Scheffer-Boyadel has been appointed Governor of Warsaw according to a Posen dispatch to the Vossische Zeitung, a copy of which has been received at Amsterdam.

THOMAS WELSH ON FRENCH RACING.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 13.—Trainer Thomas Welsh was talking entertainingly to a few friends regarding racing families and racing conditions in France. "As in England," he said, "the best sires in France are sons of St. Simon. They are probably the most fashionable, but Le Sancy, by the English horse Atlantic, is highly thought of and the sons of Le Sancy are also popular, as are also the Dollar mares. Elif, a grandson of Le Sancy, is also a successful sire. He gets nearly all grays. He was the sire of Nimbus, an exceptionally fast horse.

"A sprinter is of no practical use in French racing. They don't race any, except two-year-olds over what we consider sprinting distances. He might get a chance to start once or twice a year. They in France consider a mile and a quarter a sprint for three-year-olds and upward. The Grand Prix for three-year-olds is over a course of a mile and seven-eighths, and they do not consider two miles too great a distance for a three-year-old."

"The scale of weights over there is practically the same as it is here. But they live right up to it all the time. You never see a race programmed 'ten pounds below the scale,' and the result is that their good jockeys last a long time. It is not uncommon to see a successful jockey forty years old or over in France."

HILLCREST RACING OVER HEAVY TRACK.

Toronto, Ont.—August 13.—Prospects were none too bright today for the opening of the Toronto Driving Club's summer meeting at Hillcrest Park tomorrow. The weather is threatening and the track muddy from the heavy daily rains of late. There is an abundance of horses on the grounds before the meeting. The overflow, about one hundred head, occupy quarters at Dufferin Park. Several caravans are expected from King Edward Park, Montreal, at the close of the meeting there tomorrow.

The officials will include Ed Cole, presiding judge; Alderman Sam McBride, associate judge; F. McGinnity, starter, and W. R. Norvell, racing secretary.

WINDSOR'S ENTICING CARD

SEVEN RACES WITH THE DETROIT AND WINDSOR FERRY CO. HANDICAP THE FEATURE.

Six Carded to Start, Including Borrow—Rancher Well Thought Of for the Race—Hodge in Good Condition—Many Arrivals.

Windsor, Ont., August 13.—The Detroit and Windsor Ferry Company Handicap, one of the usual features of the second meeting of the Windsor Jockey Club, is offered as an attraction for the opening day's program tomorrow. The handicap has brought together a well balanced field. The distance of the race is one mile and a sixteenth, and while there are only six acceptances, they are so well matched at the weights, that a rousing contest should result. Indications point to a fast track and this means that the going will suit Rancher, the horse that won the Canadian Sportsman Handicap at Fort Erie on Wednesday. There will be some good horses opposed to Rancher tomorrow, however, and he will not have the easy time he did on Wednesday. Hodge, a recent arrival from New York, has worked well and is at his best. The Whitney representative, Borrow, is asked to shoulder the heavy impost of 133 pounds and it is considered doubtful if he can concede the weight to some of the others. In the event that Joe Notter does not arrive from Saratoga, jockey Phil Goldstein will have the mount on Borrow. Waterbass will be ridden by Ted Rice.

The program is made up of seven races, in which the best horses on the ground are entered. An allowance race for two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs, and the Ste. Clair Handicap, a sprint of three-quarters, divide interest with the running of the stake. There are three races at one mile and over on the card and the minimum purse value is $700. The club adds $7,200 to the seven races, an average of more than $1,000 a race. The management announced, at the conclusion of the previous meeting, that in the future the purses would average at least $700.

There were some arrivals from the east, among them the stables of J. W. Goldblatt and W. J. Weller. The latter's contingent was the good gelding Hodge. The Goldblatt string includes a number of useful selling platters.

Julie Garson, before returning to Saratoga from Fort Erie, concluded negotiations for the useful horse Mallard. The horse was shipped to Garson by W. R. Mizell before the left Fort Erie.

James Robertson reports that his plater Richwood is rounding to after his falling lame at the previous meeting here. The horse had a saddle on yesterday for the first time since his mishap and Robertson has hopes of being able to get him to the races, probably at the Woodbine meeting in Toronto next fall. Robertson has purchased from G. L. Blackford the two-year-old filly Memories, by Meelick—Marchpast. W. Cottrell acted for Mr. Blackford in the transaction. Cottrell has sold to Edward Murray the two-year-old Matrix, also by Meelick.

Henry McDaniel reports that the horses he took off for Robert Davies during the Hamilton meeting are going along well. Plate Glass will be ready for the races at Ottawa and Montreal.

There is a big delegation of followers of the sport here for the meeting and it seems that the attendance will exceed that of previous meetings.

EPSOM DERBY AND OAKS NOMINATIONS.

Entries to the Epsom Derby and Oaks of 1917 closed July 20. Entries from France were, in good part, of yearlings nominated by such American owners as Charles Carroll, H. B. Duryea, W. A. Chanler and J. E. Widener. Mr. Duryea was especially liberal with four entries in the Derby and five in the Oaks, they being either the progeny of his own sire, Irish Lad, or of French sires from his American broodmares, an exception, however, being the colt Herodote, by Uncle—Herodia. The latter is a young mare by Adam—Wild Thyme. The entries made in Paris were:

To the Epsom Derby.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Archie Zimmer has added to his string Belle of the Kitchen and the erratic Carabreter.

Andrew Miller is reported to have paid $2,000 for Disturber, which he purchased from John W. Schorr at Saratoga Wednesday.

Jockey J. Howard has been suspended for the remainder of the King Edward Park meeting at Montreal for rough riding.

Leialoha, owned by Gene Lutz, was badly cut in the running of a recent race at King Edward Park and will have to be given a rest.

D. S. Fountain has bought Roscas and Miss Genevieve as a starter in the acquisition of string of racers for use at San Francisco.

"Little Pete" Christensen, who has had his ups and downs as a follower of racing for many years, is among the patrons of the sport at Saratoga.

E. H. Short claimed Miss Brush from W. C. Capps at King Edward Park Wednesday for $525. It was the first transaction of the kind on the half-mile tracks in Canada this season.

P. T. Chin, it is said, will make another trip to England in quest of thoroughbreds for importation into this country. He will represent several wealthy breeders and owners of racing stables.

The stables of the late Charles Reed were sold at public auction at Saratoga Wednesday and bid in by Willard J. Miner for $1,600. The property consisted of four stables of ten stalls each on a plot of ground 400 by 125 feet. Mrs. Reed, widow of the man who purchased St. Blaise by one bid of $100,000, has been forced to dispose of much of the estate.

Three purses won by the horses ridden by jockey Whymark at King Edward Park, Montreal, Saturday, August 7, have been protested. It has developed that Whymark's apprentice allowance expired August 4, and as he rode with the allowance on the day in question the King Edward Park officials have sustained the protest and awarded the purses in the races won by Bertha V., Orimar Lad and Dixie to the second horses, Fort Monroe, Luke Van Zandt and Miss Brush.

The plan of displaying approximate odds during the course of the betting on each race at Fort Erie during the meeting just closed proved a popular innovation and doubtless will be adopted at other tracks where the mutuels are employed. It removes one of the objections which some have had to patronizing the mutuels—namely, inability to determine in advance what odds may be expected. In France, where the mutuels have grown to be a big thing in connection with racing, similar information is provided.

Little F. Judy, the midget who rides for John W. Schorr, is a source of much fun to the spectators at Saratoga. He had the mount on Eddie Delling in the fifth race Wednesday and brought home the only winning favorite of the day. He was so busy getting to the front and grabbing the path that he lost his whip in the early part of the six-furlong race. He had a good lead on San Vega in the stretch, but Judy took no chances, and his little hand worked overtime slapping his mount first on the neck and then swinging behind him for another wallop. The crowd roared with laughter, but Judy was there to bring the horse home, and he did so by three lengths.

NUMBER OF HORSES IN OUR RACING.

In the year 1905, 6,232 horses participated in the racing of the United States and Canada. That was and is the record in respect to number of thoroughbreds in racing in any one year in this country. From that point there was a decline, due to adverse legislation in various states, until in 1913 only a total of 3,541 racers was in action. However, with a difference of only twelve horses less, that was practically about the same as the total for 1912, and there was an upward tendency manifest last year when the total mounted up to 3,632. It is probable that when the time comes to compile the statistics of this year, arrived for further gain, will be shown to be this a satisfactory feature that is beyond dispute. At the same time it is apparent that we have a long way to travel before the diminution in our thoroughbred resources wrought since 1905 will be fully repaired. The number of horses raced over American tracks each year since and including 1900, is as follows:

Year.	Horses.	Year.	Horses.
1900	4,792	1908	5,405
1901	5,127	1909	4,890
1902	5,271	1910	4,180
1903	5,325	1911	4,028
1904	5,962	1912	3,553
1905	6,232	1913	3,541
1906	5,962	1914	3,632
1907	5,602

The leading winners of various ages in last year's racing in this country are shown in the subjjoined compilation:

Horse.	Age.	Sts.	1st.	2d.	3d.	Uph.	Won.
